by Andrew Krivak

Be a part of the Story...

Stage Left Community Arts Center is one of 62 organizations nationwide selected to receive a 2022-2023 NEA Big Read grant.

The Story begins...

"Lyrical. . . . Gorgeous. . . . Krivak's serene and contemplative novel invites us to consider a vision of time as circular, of existence as grand and eternal beyond the grasp of individuals—and of a world able to outlive human destructiveness."

—Washington Post

Read and become part of a world where a girl and her father live close to the land in the shadow of a lone mountain. They possess a few remnants of civilization: some books, a pane of glass, a set of flint and steel, a comb. Follow in their footsteps as father teaches daughter how to fish and hunt, and to discover the secrets of the seasons and the stars. Listen as he prepares her for an adulthood in harmony with nature as you venture with them—the last of humankind.

But when the girl finds herself alone in an unknown landscape, it is a bear that will lead her and you back home through a vast wilderness that offers the greatest lessons of all.
