

“ The art of writing is the art of discovering what you believe. ”
~Gustav Flaubert~French Writer

Young Playwrights, Poets & Storytellers

For Grades 7-12

STAGE LEFT  COMMUNITY
ARTS CENTER

PROPOSED Calendar of Events 2022-2023

Please carefully review and check your personal calendars.

With Regard to Holidays, SLP & POL Schedules

- 12:30-1:30 PM on Sunday, November 6th We provide a basic- you provide personal beverage and chips or cookies to share. We start with a combined activity to get the creative minds in gear, then divide according to what you want to try- Playwriting, Poetry or Storytelling. Then we'll get back together to share. NOTE: Poetry Out Loud participants must choose a poem and have it memorized by December 18th.
- 12:30-1:30 PM on Sunday, December 18th We provide a basic- you provide personal beverage and chips or holiday cookies to share. We start with a combined activity to get the creative minds in gear, then divide according to what you want to try- Playwriting, Poetry or Storytelling. Poetry Out Loud participants must arrive with poems memorized and ready to work on presenting to each other.
- 12:30-1:30 PM on Sunday, January 8th We provide a basic- you provide personal beverage and chips or cookies to share. We will divide according to Playwriting, Poetry or Storytelling to make firm plans. Poets will hold a final rehearsal. At 1:15 pm we will all convene to hold our Poetry Out Loud competition and will choose a Stage Left Champion who will workshop and move on to the Regional Championship on February 18, 2023.
- 12:30-1:30 PM on Sunday, February 19th ZOOM Virtual Meeting. All participants will share their projects. Our Stage Left Poetry Out Loud Champion will describe his/her experience at the Regional Competition.
- 12:30-1:30 PM on Sunday, March 19th, April 2nd & April 16th We provide a basic- you provide personal beverage and chips or cookies to share. We will divide according to Playwriting, Poetry or Storytelling to prepare for the April Arts Celebration.

NEA Big Read Celebration of the Arts Festival

7 PM Fri & Sat, April 28 & 29 and 2 PM SUN, April 30